

ADMISSIONS PROCEDURES

Saint Martin de Porres School

2012 U.S. Department of Education Blue Ribbon School

Roman Catholic Schools in the Archdiocese of New York base their educational purpose and all their activities on the Christian teaching of the essential equality of all persons as rooted in God's love.

Thus, with discrimination so repugnant to their nature and mission, Catholic Schools in this Archdiocese does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, and gender in administration of educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school administered programs.

The policies of admission to Saint Martin de Porres School is for parents to complete a Saint Martin de Porres School application form and submit it to the principal. After review of the application, parents must have an interview with the principal. Following the interview, an evaluation of the school application and all required documentation, the parents will be notified about the status of the child's admission.

Please note that when accepting students into Saint Martin de Porres School, preference is always given first to those returning students currently enrolled in Saint Martin de Porres School for the previous year (which includes PreK-3 and PreK-4 students), who have met their academic requirements, financial obligations, and all Parent Involvement Program requirements. Second, for new students preference is given to siblings of those already registered in Saint Martin de Porres School from the previous school year. Third, to registered and active parishioners of Saint Martin de Porres Parish. Fourth, to recently registered parishioners of Saint Martin de Porres Parish. Fifth, all other students who wish to attend Saint Martin de Porres School.
